7. Determine appropriate levels of remuneration of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management and have a prime role in appointing and where necessary recommend removal of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management.
8. Moderate and arbitrate in the interest of the Company as a whole, in situations of conflict between management and shareholder's interest.

Duties:

1. Undertake appropriate induction and regularly update and refresh your skills, knowledge and familiarity with the Company.
2. Seek appropriate clarification or amplification of information and, where necessary, take and follow appropriate professional advice and opinion of outside experts at the expense of the Company.
3. Strive to attend all meetings of the Board including a Separate meeting of the independent director and of the Board committees of which you are a member.
4. Participate constructively and actively in the committees of the Board in which you are chairperson or member.
5. Strive to attend the general meetings of the Company.
6. Where you have concerns about the running of the Company or a proposed action, ensure that these are addressed by the Board and, to the extent that they are not resolved, insist that your concerns are recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting.
7. Keep yourself well informed about the Company and the external environment in which it operates.
8. Not to unfairly obstruct the functioning of an otherwise proper Board or committee of the Board.
9. Pay sufficient attention and ensure that adequate deliberations are held before approving related party transactions and assure yourself that the same are in the interest of the Company.

10. Ascertain and ensure that the Company has an adequate and functional vigil mechanism and to ensure that the interests of a person who uses such mechanism are not prejudicially affected on account of such use.
11. Report concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company's code of conduct or ethics policy.
12. Act within your authority, assist in protecting the legitimate interests of the Company, shareholders and its employees.
13. Not disclose confidential information, including commercial secrets, technologies, advertising and sales promotion plans, unpublished price sensitive information, unless such disclosure is expressly approved by the Board or required by law.
